

DELANEY INSTALLED
 Captain L. E. Delaney, former book publisher with offices here, was recently installed as second vice-president of the Los Angeles County Division of the Consolidated Business Groups of California, Inc. by Supervisor Leonard J. Roach.

SIGRID FRIBERG
 Services were held Monday at the First Lutheran Church for Mrs. Sigrid Friberg, who died here last Friday at the age of 72. A native of Norway, she came here two and one half years ago and resided at 2047 West 235th street. The Rev. Paul Wenske officiated at services; interment was at Roosevelt Memorial Park. Mrs. Friberg is survived by her husband, Ben Friberg; five sons and two daughters, Joel, Karl, Ben, and Edwin of Torrance, Mrs. Laura Brooks and Clarence Friberg of Los Angeles, and Mrs. Ivy Peppin of Modesto. She also leaves eight grandchildren and two great-grandchildren. Arrangements were handled by Hammond-Mispegel-Ruppe, Directors of Los Angeles.

 activities, will include music by the members of the Torrance Evening High School Adult Chorus, community singing led by George Zavisian, and several vocal selections by Mr. E. D. Socolofsky.

The $2 per plate affair will start at 7 p.m. at the recently completed American Legion clubhouse, 1109 Border avenue, according to L. M. Isbell, executive secretary.

Following the installation the audience will hear a brief review of the organization's activities during the past year, and an outline of coming events, said Isbell.

Tickets for the public affair may be purchased at the YMCA office or from Chairman W. E. Bowen, 1327 Post avenue.

Members of the entertainment committee include Lloyd Waller, A. C. Turner, John Steinbaugh, and Isbell.

POINT IN FAVOR . . . Though the new routing of traffic through and around the "gunzel trap" at Five Points intersection may be strange to old timers for a while, the new system being installed by workmen above will prove to be a sedative to motorists' jangled nerves, say engineers. —Herald photo by Bob Wilton.

 four or five months the doctors estimated.

Mrs. John Taylor, Jim's mother, early this week appealed to the Torrance Herald by asking this newspaper to run a story that might bring about the loan of a mirror from one of the Herald's readers.

The mirror would be placed over the boy's bed when he is returned to his home.

In the meantime the Herald, made arrangements for a mirror for the youth.

In addition an arrangement was made with the Gibson-DeVore Home Appliance company for the loan of a television set to be installed near his bed.

Tot Smothers To Death in Harbor Hills

Two-months-old Michael Paul McCabe smothered to death in his crib last weekend at Harbor Hills.

The tiny body was discovered at about 9 a.m. Sunday morning when the victim's father, Paul F. McCabe, arose to prepare food for the baby.

Michael and placed him in the crib at about midnight Saturday.

When the father arose Sunday morning, he found the baby lying with his face pressed down between the side of the crib and the mattress, he told investigating officers.

McCabe said the baby was uncovered at the time and when he started to pick him up, the tot felt cold.

The father called the baby's mother and Dr. R. M. Patterson, who pronounced the infant dead from suffocation. The body was taken to Gamby mortuary.

Investigating officers and detectives said the death was accidental.
